The Seekonk Public Schools will celebrate the 200th Anniversary of the Town of Seekonk with events at our schools on April 9, 10 and 11.

Wear your Town colors and regalia! T-shirts and other items will be available for purchase at various locations throughout the celebration.

These free events are to take place at the Hurley Middle School, the Martin Elementary School, in conjunction with the Aitken School, and at Seekonk High School.

Support Doorways Food Pantry They are low on staples

We ask that you bring a donation of baked beans, jelly, canned fruit or pasta sauce. There will be bins in each building.

Our gratitude to all of those who took extraordinary steps to make this a special event.
